

Hope Network is a treatment program for patients suffering from closed head injuries. It includes inpatient residential and outpatient treatment programs. Residents evaluate and treat these patients along with three psychiatrists who have extensive experience working with patients with closed head injuries. This is a rich experience working with some very difficult and complex patients.